

Regarding deposit transactions with foreign customers whose period of stay registered with our bank has expired

For customers who have opened accounts with our bank, we confirm their residence status and the expiration date of their period of stay.

From February 16, 2026, if you are unable to present your residence card and your declared period of stay has expired or has not been confirmed, you will be unable to withdraw money from your ordinary savings account in accordance with our deposit regulations (salary deposits and utility bill deductions will still be available). If you have renewed your residence status or the expiration date of your period of stay, please report the updated residence card to our bank.

1. We provide information about residence cards via short message service (SMS) and direct mail (DM).

For customers whose registered residence expiration date with our bank is approaching or has passed, we send notifications via SMS to their mobile phone numbers. Also, if you have not registered your mobile phone number with our bank, we send direct mail to the address you have provided. Please note that depending on the delivery status of the mobile phone number and address, notifications may not be received.

* Even if you are a permanent resident or a special permanent resident, if you have not notified the bank of your status of residence, you may be unable to withdraw from your ordinary deposit account. We will need to verify your identity, so please bring your residence card or special permanent resident certificate and visit any branch of The 77 Bank.

Regarding the SMS sender's phone number: 0120-22-7877

* For customers using SoftBank mobile phones, the SMS originating number will appear as "241190."
